

APPENDIX III – List of Figures

---

- Figure 1: Physician referral routes when a suspicion of ASD exists. (p.7)
- Figure 2: Physician familiarity with local services. (p.9)
- Figure 3: EIIS impact on schools' capacity to deliver services to children with ASD. (p. 12)
- Figure 4: Actual transition process reported by schools for children with ASD. (p.14)
- Figure 5: Overall satisfaction with the transition process as reported by school staff. (p. 14)
- Figure 6: Skills inventory of training specific to ASD received by school staff. (p.17)
- Figure 7: Comfort level of school staff in each training area. (p. 17)
- Figure 8: Distribution of returned surveys according to service program type. (p.18)
- Figure 9: Percentage of respondents providing services to children with ASD across counties. (p.18)
- Figure 10: Age criteria for eligibility for services specific to ASD. (p.19)
- Figure 11: Typical waiting times for ASD related services subsequent to referral. (p.20)
- Figure 12: Overview of ASD services delivered by service providers in Western NS. (p.20)
- Figure 13: Participation in IFSP planning. (p.21)
- Figure 14: Percent of services providers who made developmental information available to schools and daycares. (p.21)
- Figure 15: Frequency of Home Visits as part of service delivery options. (p.22)
- Figure 16: Capacity of daycares to deliver services to children with ASD. (p.22)
- Figure 17: EIIS impacts on service delivery reported by service providers in Western NS. (p.25)

- Figure 18: Skill inventory of training specific to ASD received by service providers across the Western Region. (p. 27)
- Figure 19: Comfort level of service providers in each training area. (p.27)
- Figure 20: Time lapse between parents' first concerns and age at diagnosis. (p.28)
- Figure 21: Source of diagnostic assessment as reported by parents. (p.29)
- Figure 22: Family ratings of "quality factors" associated with service delivery. (p.31)
- Figure 23: Percentage of families reporting collaboration among service providers. (p.33)